Press release

We are thrilled to announce Nicole McBrayne as our new VP of Sales to the Gallery Group of Companies.

Nicole comes with a plethora of prior experience that makes her perfect for this role. She is a leader, mentor, and relationship builder. She also produces results, thinks strategically, and continually builds on success. With many years in the hospitality industry under her belt, Nicole has flourished in fast paced environments and honed her interpersonal and communication abilities. We are so excited to see Nicole's expertise generate results in our own company.

As VP of Sales, Nicole will lead and engage a high-powered and fully integrated Sales team across Canada. She will also be responsible for growing our robust network of architects, designers, and developers. We have full confidence that Nicole will build on our current successes as well as shape the future for our Sales team for years to come.

Please join us in giving Nicole a warm welcome to the team.

David Turk, President.
